Hello Glendale – Anyone home?

The 2004 International Children's Games mailed out invitations to 600 mayors of US cities last week to participate in this summer's games in Cleveland, Ohio. The 1,000 spaces reserved for US teams will be filled in a matter of days.

Once the children arrive in Cleveland Ohio, all of their expenses for food, lodging and transportation will be paid for by the Games.

Hello Glendale, fill out the intent to participate form (www.childrens-games.org) today and sign up 30 of your best Armenian athletes aged 12-15 today. The greater Cleveland Armenian-American community welcomes you with open arms!

For further information, contact Anita Kazarian at Noah's Landing by phone or e-mail. 216.932.8100 or apk@noahs-landing.com
